

ADVERTISEMENT

HOME / NEWS / CITIES / BENGALURU

'I Love Cows' event by GoPals

Published - February 14, 2025 07:00 pm IST - BENGALURU

THE HINDU BUREAU

READ LATER PRINT

GoPals, a voluntary organisation dedicated to promoting awareness about native Indian cows (Naati Hasu), is hosting the "I Love Cows" event on Sunday, February 16, 2025, at the Akhila Prani Daya Sangha Goushala in Koramangala, Bengaluru. The event, which will begin at 9 a.m., aims to educate attendees on the critical role of desi Indian cows in sustainability efforts.

Continue reading after this ADVERTISEMENT

Special fares from ₹6,000***

Book now

With nearly 200 participants expected, the event will feature a variety of activities. Expert-led Q&A sessions will cover topics such as kitchen gardening, compost preparation, and eco-friendly living. Renowned environment and sustainability expert, Vasuki Iyengar, along with Padmashree, a Sustainable Solid Waste Practitioner from IIM Bangalore, will lead these informative discussions.

In addition to the educational sessions, the event will offer fun activities, including games for children, a bullock cart ride, and an informative programme about native cow breeds. A special highlight of the day will be a session focused on natural farming practices, specifically techniques involving soil fertilisers like Jeevamrutham and Ghana Jeevamrutham.

Continue reading after this ADVERTISEMENT

Powered By VDO.AI

Shop Now

✉
you@yourdomain.com
➔

Skip Ad ▶

Published - February 14, 2025 07:00 pm IST

READ COMMENTS

READ LATER PRINT

ADVERTISEMENT

Most Popular

PM Modi U.S. visit highlights: Bilateral cooperation should not harm third party, says China on Modi-Trump meet

G. Kamalini - The accidental cricketer on the fast lane to stardom

Andhra Pradesh government will soon deposit ₹20,000 into the accounts of each farmer, says Somireddy

India's Got Latent row: 'Something very dirty in his mind', Supreme Court lashes out at Ranveer Allahbadia, protects YouTuber from arrest

BBMP invites public, animal welfare outfits to take part in awareness campaigns in Bengaluru

Two-day meet on sustainable technologies from February 19

A World Divided Over WEST ASIA

A multidimensional view of the unfolding crisis in West Asia, the implausible two-state solution, India's position on Palestine, the special U.S.-Israel relationship, Iran's influence on the militias, and more.

Download the eBook